KEY TREND 2025: THE BODY HAIRCARE BOOM

HAIRREMOVAL

Consumers are seeking products that empower choice in body hair. This is driving demand for sensitive underarm and pubic area care.

WGSN

Executive summary

Future Trend

Revamped basics: Designed to last

Redesigned personal care staples will transform what it means to be inclusive and sustainable.

A continuation of waste-free routines and lifestyles, this concept has particularly thrived in the razor market with a growing crop of personal care brands advocating for sustainable alternatives to single-use and plastic razors.

In the US, 158.10m people used disposable razors in 2020, and this number is expected to increase to 160.16m by 2024 (Statista).

In an effort to produce less waste, brands are opting for razors made from recycled materials.

#Gillette's Planet KIND range includes razors with handles made from 60% recycled plastic;

while Schick Intuition designed its Bamboo Disposable Razor with renewable bamboo handles and 75% recycled-steel blades.

#Japanese brand KAI

developed a Paper Razor, said to cut down plastic use by 98%.
